CASE NUMBER: 3:18-cr-00001-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

12. The defendant shall register as a sex offender as prescribed by state and federal law.

13. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or any device with access to any "on-line computer service" at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the United States Probation Office. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or e-mail system. The defendant's residence shall not contain any electronic devices capable of Internet access without prior approval of the probation officer.

14. The defendant shall consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting unannounced examinations of the defendant's computer system(s), mobile devices, and internal/external storage devices, which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system(s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. The defendant will consent to having installed on the defendant's computer(s), any hardware/software to monitor computer use or prevent access to particular materials. The defendant will further consent to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to ensure it is functioning properly. The defendant shall pay the cost of the installation of and the continuing use of the monitoring program.

15. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware/software) and internal/external storage devices; all passwords used by the defendant; and will abide by all rules regarding computer use and restrictions as provided by the U.S. Probation Office.

16. The defendant and her co-defendant, Robert Adkins, shall bear joint and several liability for the $21,600 in restitution. Accordingly, the defendant shall pay restitution in an amount totaling $21,600 to the extent that it has not been paid by her co-defendant. No interest or penalties shall accrue.

Restitution payments shall be submitted to:
Clerk, United States District Court
Middle District of Tennessee
719 Church Street
Nashville, TN 37203

(Name and address of victim on file with the Clerk's Office)

Restitution is due immediately. If defendant is incarcerated, payment shall begin under the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Should there be any unpaid balance when supervision commences, the defendant shall pay the remaining restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the defendant's gross monthly income. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the Court and the United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.

The Clerk shall collect and hold restitution payments until the victim, a minor child, reaches majority. However, if prior to the child victim reaching majority, the child participates in therapy and the guardian incurs any out-of-pocket costs for that therapy, the guardian may file a motion seeking recovery at such costs and attaching proof of those costs; if such motion is in proper order, the Court will order the Clerk's Office to disburse the amount requested (if funds are available) to the appropriate recipient. (In terms of the logistics for filing a motion, the guardian may contact the Clerk's Office for instructions, but the Court notes, as one possibility, that such a motion could be filed by the guardian by mailing or hand delivering the motion in hard copy to the Clerk's Office for filing.) The Clerk can disperse funds collected up to that date to cover the out-of-pocket therapy expense. Once the child victim reaches majority, the victim may file a motion with the Court seeking disbursement of any remaining available funds. Upon determining that such a motion is in proper order, the Court shall grant the motion in an order specifying the disbursable amount and the name and address of the payee. (In terms of the logistics for filing a motion, the victim may contact the Clerk's Office for instructions, but the Court notes as one possibility, that such a motion could be filed by the victim by mailing or hand delivering the motion in hard copy to the Clerk's Office for filing.)

17. You shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
